

RIXEY'S BOND IS NOT FORFEITED

Rule Is Dismissed on Motion of Commonwealth's Attorney.

APPEARS IN COURT

Enters Plea of Not Guilty, and Trial Is Set for September 18.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Alexandria, Va., April 17.—C. Jones Rixey, president of the defunct Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation, journeyed over to Alexandria this morning in a taxicab from Washington and entered a plea of not guilty when formally arraigned, and his trial was fixed for September 15 next in the Corporation Court.

Rixey appeared slightly nervous. Otherwise he looked to be in fairly good health. During the proceedings, which lasted forty-five minutes, Rixey sat in a chair in the office of the clerk of the Corporation Court. He appeared during the proceedings, and every now and then would close his eyes. Immediately after the proceedings Rixey was assisted by his brother, Surgeon-General P. M. Rixey, of Washington, into the taxicab and whizzed back to his home in Washington, apparently little the worse from his visit to this city.

When the case was called Attorney John L. Jeffries, of Norfolk, one of Rixey's attorneys, moved to quash the indictment on the ground that the jury was not properly summoned or constituted. The motion was overruled by the court.

Another motion put by Mr. Jeffries was a demurrer to the indictment, and each count thereof. This was also overruled by the court.

Judge Barley, who presided, asked on what grounds he demurred, and Mr. Jeffries said that in criminal cases it was not obligatory to state the ground. Upon motion of the Commonwealth Attorney the rule issued Monday last to show cause why Rixey's bond in the sum of $10,000 should not be forfeited, addition being for another indictment recently returned against the accused, making a total of nine indictments pending against him in connection with the collapse of the bank.

The following attorneys representing Rixey, together with his bondsmen, were in court: John L. Jeffries, Norfolk; John S. Barbour, J. G. Hiden and J. Randall Caton, Jr., C. Jones Rixey, his son, also accompanied him down from Washington this morning.

The proceedings took place in the office of the clerk of the Corporation Court and but few spectators were present.

Every Woman

at certain periods of her life needs a tonic stimulant to help her overcome the trials and sickness which only a woman knows. Strength and health render unimportant the ills and troubles that otherwise seem so formidable. To build up the body and enrich the blood there's no tonic known so good as

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

For over fifty years it has been the standard remedy for every condition where a health and strength builder is needed. It overcomes weakness in a gradual, natural manner—restores the tissues to a vigorous, healthy condition.

It is a wonderful remedy in the prevention and cure of consumption, pneumonia, coughs, colds, grip, malaria, low fevers, stomach troubles and all wasting and weakening conditions, if taken as directed.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is the only whiskey that was taxed by the Government as a medicinal wine during the Spanish-American war.

All druggists, grocers and dealers, or direct, $1.00 a large bottle. Write for free medical booklet and doctor's advice.

Hampton-Sidney Wins. Defeated Medical College of Virginia by Score of 6 to 2.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Hampton-Sidney, Va., April 17.—Hampton-Sidney defeated the Medical College of Virginia by a score of 6 to 2. The game was a fast and interesting one. Hampton-Sidney played great ball at every stage of the game. The doctors plainly showed individual ability, but the lack of team work led them towards their defeat. The pitching of Ayers and the fielding and batting of Lewis and the base running of Young, for the Richmonders, was great. For Hampton-Sidney Moore, pitcher; Saunders at third and Lee in the field were the stars.

WILLARD THANKS GOVERNOR MANN

Virginian Finds Situation in Madrid to Be Entirely Satisfactory.

RHEA EXAMINES RAILROAD

Making Inspection of Baltimore and Ohio Branches—Eighty Applications.

Definite assurance regarding the situation of former Lieutenant-Governor Joseph E. Willard, who accidentally killed a Castilian peasant in Northern Spain last Wednesday, was received yesterday from Colonel Willard by Governor Mann. As soon as he learned of the accident, Governor Mann requested the State Department in Washington to use its offices to see that justice was done the Virginian and that his interests were safeguarded.

The Governor yesterday received the following cablegram from Colonel Willard. "Thanks for your assistance. All right now." This was sent from Madrid.

The friends of the Virginian traveler now feel confident that no complications will ensue, and that he will soon be enabled to leave Spain.

EXAMINING RAILROAD

Colonel Burgwyn's Report Not Satisfactory to Winchester People.

Judge William F. Rhea, of the State Corporation Commission, went yesterday to Winchester to make a personal inspection of the lines of the Winchester and Potomac and the Winchester and Strasburg railroads, both of which are leased to and operated by the Baltimore and Ohio. He does this at the request of R. E. Byrd, representing the city of Winchester. The Mayor of the town made the formal complaint against the operation of the roadway and the lack of adequate service said to exist.

The commission sent Colonel C. P. E. Burgwyn, of this city, to make an inspection. His report, however, was not satisfactory to the Winchester people, being regarded as not sustaining their contention, and Judge Rhea is making a personal investigation. He will go over the line to-day.

Many Want Examination. At the close of business yesterday eighty persons had applied to take the State examination for license to practice pharmacy, which will be held next week. This will make the largest class in the history of the State Board of Pharmacy.

The Easter Parade. Seated in his office yesterday, State Labor Commissioner Doherty smiled when he thought of the company of Christian who is wanted at the work may all be done within the ten-hour limit, it won't be done at all.

A requisition was issued yesterday by Governor Mann on Governor W. E. Glasscock, of West Virginia, for the arrest of the Easter parade at Norfolk on the charge of grand larceny. Policeman Theodore L. Stevenson went for the woman, who is in jail in Charleston.

Officers Resign. The Adjutant-General yesterday received the resignations of First Lieutenant J. H. Croff and of Second Lieutenant J. W. Cunningham, of Company F, Second Infantry, at Hanover.

The trial is set for to-morrow.

Richmond Gun Club. The Easter shoot was a pronounced success, and those present spent a most pleasant evening at the traps. Westcott won high honors with 57 out of 100, and making two straight 25's. U. M. C. Anderson pushed Westcott for first place by scoring 56. Crenshaw continues his improvement. Lewis a new shooter, faced the traps for the second time in six years. He will be topnotcher later in the season.

The most interesting event of the afternoon was the team race. No. 1 team, shooting from nineteen yards, beat No. 2 team, shooting from sixteen yards, one target.

Dick Bateman, one of the old trap shooters of the city, faced the traps for the first time this season.
